Gospel:

Matthew 11.16–19, 25–end

Offertory Hymn

Take the gifts, Lord we bring

*Take the gifts, Lord, we bring:
Your love and praise we sing:
For You made us out of nothing
And this world that we live in.
We're no mystery to You,
For You became man too,
And You died for this world of our own*

- 1) Lord, take this world of our own that Christ came down to share,
For we want to make up for all sin everywhere.
And as proof - here's a sign: we bring you bread and wine:
Make anew, Lord, this world of our own. (Chorus)
- 2) Lord, take this world of our own that Christ came down to share
Fill all hearts and all homes with Your love everywhere.
In the name of Your Son, may all men be one -
Make anew, Lord, this world of our own. (Chorus)

St. Wilfrid's East Window Inspection

In case you are wondering why there is scaffolding adjacent to the East Wall of the church (and the surrounding 3m hoarding required by our insurers) they are there to allow close inspection of the East Window stonework and fittings. Our Supervising Architect has now made his inspection and we await his report. It is clear that remedial works will be required and the Architect will lay down a specification for specialist stonemasons to quote for the required works.
